They consist mostly of the Mexican race and are said to be stealing everything they can get their hands on.

The special preparations of music contributed largely to the success of the conference.

GREAT CROWD HEAR CHAFIN

Largest Audience of the Campaign at Court House Plaza Sunday Afternoon to Hear Arguments for Prohibition Amendment

The biggest and most enthusiastic meeting of the campaign and the one in which the attendants seemed most to be in accord with the purpose of the meeting, was that held at the court house plaza on Sunday afternoon. It was a temperance meeting addressed by Hon. Eugene W. Chafin, independent prohibition candidate for United States senator, though the meeting had not been called in his interest. Throughout his address he did not refer to his candidacy but confined his remarks to the subject of temperance, the proposed prohibition amendment and to those who were opposing it.

There was an attendance of 2500. That was more than the management of the meeting had expected. All the seats of the Y. M. C. A. out-door court and the city hall plaza had been brought in and still there were not enough. The crowd, nearly half women, is said to have been twice as great as any candidate had succeeded in bringing out at a mass-meeting in the course of the campaign.

The meeting was held at four o'clock in the afternoon. Half an hour before that a large crowd had assembled at the First M. E. church to march to the speaking place. The procession was headed by Stanley Howard the flagbearer, followed by the ministers of the various churches. The procession was three blocks in length. The march was enlivened by the singing of "Rally, Rally All Ye Freemen, the Whiskey Shops Must Go."

Charles J. Hall presided over the meeting and introduced Mr. Chafin who read one of the communications sent out by the so-called protective association which he said was a screen one of the many schemes of the Royal Arch an organization of saloon keepers whose batteries are always masked. Mr. Chafin said that he had sent personal letters to all the members of the protective association asking them to meet him in joint debate but he had received no replies. If, said the speaker, any of the association were present, he would divide time with them on the rostrum.

On the economic side of the liquor question, Mr. Chafin replied to the argument that the saloon keepers keep money in circulation. He said: "Vote the saloons out of Arizona and thus stop this vaulted circulation and I will send to my friend (for he is my friend), Carter Harrison of Chicago and have him send us down a dozen husky thugs and they will do more to keep your money in 'circulation' than the thirty-five saloons you have, and what is more, their operations would be gentle as compared with what the saloons do, for is there a father or mother in sound of my voice who would not sooner have a boy brought home, slugged and robbed than brought home drunk?"

The speaker predicted that the prohibition amendment would be carried by an overwhelming majority. He believed that it would be endorsed by every county in the state. His belief was not based on his wish but on his observations and investigation in every county for he had canvassed them all.

Applause at the words of the speaker was liberal throughout the discourse.

Several solos were rendered by Miss Cecil Pearl Buckingham.

NEW BOYS' SECRETARY FOR PHOENIX Y. M. C. A.

Robert R. Boardman of Fostoria, Ohio, Takes Up New Duties In Phoenix

Robert R. Boardman, formerly of Delaware, Ohio, but more recently secretary of the boys' activities in the modern Y. M. C. A. at Fostoria in the same state, arrived in Phoenix Saturday evening for the purpose of enlisting under his old chief, Harry M. Blair, in the Y. M. C. A. work in Phoenix. Mr. Boardman will go to work immediately and proceed to add a little more "ginger" to the work in that department.

The first indication that H. M. E. had of the ability of R. R. B., the newcomer, was in the "Y." at Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Boardman was a student in the art school. Blair quickly nabbed him and made him both boys' leader and camp leader, which he was for some time. He then took a position in the Delaware "Y." as boys' secretary and after that took a full course of training in the Y. M. C. A. training college at Springfield, Mass. He has also studied at Harvard university.

Boardman has the reputation of being nearly perfect as a leader of boys. He is an outstanding fellow of about the size of 28 years, six feet three in his stocking feet and weighs 195 stripped. He is both football star, cartoonist, illustrator and athlete, in addition to being a man with a winning personality and an attractive smile. To grip his hand is to feel a friend. He will be a great addition to the "uplift" forces in Phoenix.

ELECTION RETURNS AT RIVERSIDE PARK

Amateurs and election returns will be joint star features at Riverside park tonight. The amateurs will come from all over the city, while the election returns will come from every nook and cranny of the state. They will be supplied by direct wire from the office of the Republican, and will be thrown upon the screen as fast as they come in, and will be most complete and comprehensive, giving the results at the various polling places just as fast as they are compiled and sent out.

This week the amateur performers will be limited to people over 18 years of age. The youngsters will have their chance again next week. It is next to impossible for a grown-up to get fair consideration at the hands of the public if there are youngsters on the stage, so on alternate weeks the little ones will be eliminated. The list of performers tonight promises an especially good and amusing entertainment and the public is invited to express its opinion freely before, during and after each act.

Yesterday's celebration was one of the most enjoyable ever held at the park. There was a great crowd on hand and they enjoyed every minute of the long day and it demonstrated again what Riverside has come to mean to Phoenix.

There will be a Cafe Dansant at the park tomorrow evening.
